Bringing You Words Of Wisdom Of The Experts Straight From AIMUN Diaries

Between the lines

Evegenia Zeegofer, Second Sec., Head, Cultural Wing, Embassy Of The Russian Federation, Talks About The Value Of Culture

Between cultures

Indian culture is very diverse and beautiful. It is no surprise that Russians are fascinated by it. Russian culture is equally beautiful. We have some great works of literature and cinema, which we are proud to present to the world. I think the two nations can strengthen their ties through cultural exchange.

Between countries

Being a diplomat means being part of two countries and serving them both equally. As a diplomat it becomes crucial to discuss problems, and find immediate and effective solutions to them with sincerity. I believe all these qualities are taught to students through platforms like MUNs.

Between conferences

Platforms like AIMUN help students develop confidence and charisma at a young age. They learn about international affairs and how to deal with them systematically. In the midst of all this, it is only natural that they make mistakes and I hope they do; so that they can learn their lessons now, and be prepared for the future. G U

Diplomatic talk

Dr Karoly Sardi, Deputy Head Of Mission, Embassy Of Hungary, Hands Over The Baton Of Diplomacy

Arushi Gupta
AIS Noida, XII C

The responsibility of diplomacy

Being a diplomat comes with a lot of responsibility. A diplomat represents their country in a foreign land; they have a reputation to maintain and duties to fulfill. They have to make sure they stay rooted to the native culture while accepting the traditions of their host country.

The challenges of diplomacy

Diplomats have to move around a lot and this is a challenge for their families. There are adjustments and adaptations throughout your life. The moment you get used to a place, you might have to say good-bye, maybe in the next 2 months, 2 years or even 20 years. It's like you never know when or where you might be transferred.

The peace of diplomacy

Events like AIMUN are training young citizens to be aware about national and international crises and to seek viable solutions for them. They get to know each other, learn to discuss issues and understand each other's problems. The increase in such interactions has significantly contributed to making the world a more peaceful place. One cannot inculcate this merely through classroom learning. G U
