

Bless you!

To good old times

Atrayee Guha & Soumya Srivastava AIS Gur 43, XII D

xcitement, coupled with a tinge of nervousness, filled the air as the outgoing batch of 2019 entered the gates of their alma mater for the last time as proud Amitians. The juniors were all decked up as they geared up for the farewell celebrations. The show kick started with scintillating dance performances by the enthusiastic current batch. Moreover, what's a celebration without music? The stage was then taken over by the school band which presented a soulful fusion of Western and Indian music. The buzz in the hall came to a halt with the soothing performance of the song part

IS Pushp Vihar bid adieu to its batch of 2019, with full pomp and gusto. The outgoing batch, dressed in their best attires, entered dancing to the beat of 'Baari Barsi' accompanied by an enthusiastic dhol, to start the event on a high note. The fashion show. The spirits flew high as the school band had everyone swaying

Amity, along with other titles were also farewell ended on a light comedic roast of the outgoing batch. This goodbye to the beat with songs like 'Yaaron dosti', 'Hai junoon' et al. Mr & Ms met with a wave of energy. The was sure one fab party!

celebration began with a vibrant

'Flashlight', which took the students down the memory lane. The celebrations had almost come to an end when the juniors surprised their seniors by playing a specially made video capturing their school years, sure to kindle nostalgia and bittersweet It was indeed an AIS Gur 43 afternoon that will be etched in everyone's hearts forever.

AIS Gur 43, XI A

Pics: Dev Yadav & Sashreek Das

AIS PV

attire for their 'Blessing Ceremony'. As elegantly dressed students walked into their alma mater one last time, they were accorded a warm wel- by the DJ along with the variety of come by their juniors.

The event held to recognise the outgo-vour. ing batch, fulfilled its aim in more ways All in all, the 'Blessing Ceremony' was than one, by making every child of the an event that will be cherished by all for outgoing batch feel special. As each stu- a long time to come.

Tt was a beautiful morning. The sun dent stepped up on stage to receive a shone as brightly as the batch of memento, their various achievements 2019, who'd turned up in their finest were highlighted. The event had its fair share of fun moments as the junior students put up foot tapping performances for their seniors. The foot tapping music played sumptuous food only added to the fer-

Arpit Gupta, XII C & Stuti Kakkar, XII E, AIS Saket

elcome to 'Ek Aakhri Baar Meri Gully Mein', farewell 2019. The speakers for once reverberated with peppy songs instead. Desi and videsi dance performances had everyone tapping their feet. Titles like 'Mr India' 'Saat Khoon Maaf' Happy Phir Bhag Jayegi' were given away. Musical performances swayed the crowd. The show ended with a short film which was a collection of memories. Students bid adieu to their school life with a dance, their last one on the grounds of Amity as Amitians.

he farewell celebrations commenced with great excitement amidst conferring of 'Shahi' titles and reading out compliments for the outgoing seniors. Scintillating performances and pulsating music rocked the ambience. Students of current batch, presented an amusing skit and a group dance on a medley of peppy numbers and retro songs. The outgoing students also spoke their heart out in their valedictory speeches, and it was an emotional moment for everybody. The soon to be alumni cut the farewell cake and captured as many memories as possible. The day was a fiesta devoted to the years spent together with friends and teachers.

Farewell fiesta

with the traditional recitation of Gayatri Mantra and lighting of the lamp. The seniors were left dewy-eyed after the welcome speech accompanied by a nostalgic video, which took them down the memory lane. It was an amalgamation of all the beautiful moments they spent in school. The afternoon proceeded with a revved up everyone's spirits. The students performed on a French song making the afternoon more vibrant. The selfie corners were an enormous hit as the students created everlasting memories. The ensemble their seniors bidding them adieu. Different titles like Mr & Ms Amity, Mr & Ms Popular, Mr & Ms Well Dressed were awarded. Godspeed batch of 2019!

Memories galore Potpourri

he atmosphere was emotionally charged as the school bid farewell to the outgoing batch of 2019.To mark this nostalgic point in time, which would go down the memory lane for years to come for everyone who was part of it, the farewell ceremony opened with a video revisiting the old days of school. Several action-packed, breath-

AIS Gur 46 taking dance performances by the students of Class XII, and the crowning of Mr and Ms Amity and several other titles. Like everything else, this ceremony also came to an end, but not before it brought tears to everyone present, and made another beautiful addition to their school memories.

Good luck kids!

Srishti Singh, AIS VYC, XA

he Good Luck party began with a warm welcome by the excited juniors. A havan organised to bless the outgoing students added to the warmth. The juniors delivered power-packed performances to dazzle their seniors, all of which stole every heart. A small video at the end of the function took AIS VYC everyone down memory lane. The emotional day came to a close with the teachers showering blessings on the students.

A journey of 14 years

Tith a twinkle in every eye, anticipation in every heart and a tremble in every foot, the batch of 2019 walked down the red band of the school created carpet. The curtains rose to a drama performance the perfect ambience with a based on the theme 'One Last Class', beginning befitting musical tribute to from their days of primary school to middle and finally to senior year. The juniors performed to the tunes of 'Koi kahe kehta rahe,' 'Pretty woman' and 'Mauja hi mauja' to turn the sad faces into gleaming smiles. With a bitter-sweet taste of nostalgia in their hearts, the seniors departed, exactly how they had walked in 14 years ago.

Pic: Shashwat Yadav, AIS Vas 6, XII E

Ramsha Matin, AIS Vas 6, XII D

n award show with witty hosts and titles like 'Duchess of Dance' and 'Amity's PT Usha'; school band taking it up with songs overpowered with nostalgia; a ravishing ramp walk; a hilarious skit and embarrassing confessions - the farewell celebrations at AIS Vas 6 were a potpourri. Eyes moistened as teachers gave out final messages, but it was back to celebration with the cakecutting and DJ. Though the day marked the end of a phase, it was also a Sweet endings

Kaveri Mathur, AIS MV, XII E he red carpet had been rolled out, and the grand gates opened. Soon-to-be adults, all dressed to impress, flooded into their red brick home one last time, as a shower of petals and warm smiles greeted them. Little did the outgoing batch know, that they had an unforgettable experience awaiting had commenced. One after the other, enthralling dance performances and musical melodies made the audience groove and sing along. To add some more spice, the seniors were bestowed them. Farewell 2019 with surprise awards like 'Poo bani Parvati', 'Sasta Ambani', to name a few. Mr and Ms Amity were grabbed by Aviral Arora and Vidhi Bajaj. Every good thing comes to an end, so did the fun-filled zealous celebrations with cutting of a mouth-watering cake. After all, who says that endings can't

AIS Noida