

In Quotes

"I will no longer talk about parties, which parties supported me, which did not. Now, I am an all-party man, above party politics...I will fulfill expectations about neutrality."

M Venkaiah Naidu
Vice President, India

INSIDE

The mysteries of space, p4

The nominees are... p6-7

AMITe poll

Do you agree with Anil Kumble's decision to quit as Indian cricket team's head coach?

a) Yes b) No c) Can't say
To vote, log on to www.theglobaltimes.in

POLL RESULT

for GT Edition August 7, 2017

Do you support Centre's plan to introduce a detention policy in classes V and VIII?

Results as on August 12, 2017

Coming Next

A tale of trickery

Be a good listener and observe, everything else will follow... this is the success mantra for young journos who want to pursue Journalism.

Kamna Arora,
Jury Member, Senior
Special Correspondent,
Zee News

Graphic designing has a great scope in all verticals of media. It was great to see students ideas and illustrations in The Global Times.

Rajeev Ranjan,
Jury Member, Chief
Graphic Designer, TOI

Pics: Srishti Manchanda, XII F, Naomi Rajwanshi, XI A, Ria Upreti, XI D & Kaustubh Aggarwal, XI G, AIS Noida

THE GLOBAL TIMES

MONDAY, AUGUST 14, 2017

www.theglobaltimes.in

One, two, three

Winner
AIS Gurugram 46

2010. 2015. 2017. What do these three years have in common? AIS Gurugram 46's exemplary win at GT Awards

Bhawna Tuteja, GT Network

Pen and paper. Parchment and ink. Ponder and think. All of it came together to write a brand new story at GT Awards 2017. The event that saw a third time winner and echoed with countless three cheers, left the audience spellbound with three times the charm.

One, two, three Under the amity tree

With branches that bear a million leaves and countless fruits, the Amity tree has sprawled to offer something for everyone. The Global Times is another fruit that the tree bears, a fruit savoured by aspiring writers and artists at Amity. GT Awards is a celebration of this Amity offering. The event now in its eighth edition, marks the culmination of GT inter Amity making a newspaper contest. The competition stands witness to an amalgamation of creativity as eight branches of Amity International School across Delhi NCR churn out their contest edition, each vying for the title of the best newspaper.

One, two, three Honoured to have thee

GT Awards 2017 was a star studded affair, with glitterati in full attendance. The event was graced by Chairperson, Amity Group of Schools & RBEF, Dr (Mrs) Amita Chauhan; Ms Pooja Chauhan, Vice Chairperson, AHF and Ms Jaishree Chauhan. Chief guest, Akhilesh

One essential quality that every journalist should possess is 'to have butterflies in the stomach'. For him or her, every day should be a new day, that begins and ends with excitement as well as nervousness about what will happen today.

Akhilesh Sharma, Chief Guest
Political Editor, NDTV India

Sharma, Political Editor, NDTV India upped the star quotient further. Jury members, Rajeev Ranjan, chief graphic designer, The Times of India and Kamna Arora, senior special correspondent, Zee News ensured that the event was nothing short of the Oscars.

One, two, three On a winning spree

If we called it the Oscars, it's not without reason. For the scintillating doses of entertainment the event offered, taliyan toh banti hai. Armed with wayfarers, AIS Saket opened both - eyes and the event. Applauding the freedom of expression the newspaper has to offer, a patriotic song presentation by AIS Vasundhara 6 set spirits free. And then the stage went all black, with a pop of red (that was their dress code) as two young poets from AIS Noida enthralled all with their slam poetry. Goodbyes are best said in high tempos and raging applause. AIS PV did just that as they put an end to the entertainment spree with a mesmerising dance performance. So, if you weren't there, you know you missed out a lot. If it's any consolation, the video will be on our FB page.

One, two, three Refreshing as tea

Remember the tea commercial that asks the nation to wake up over a hot cuppa? The audience at GT Awards 2017 woke up, and that too without the tea, for the motivating words of the dignitaries opened both eyes and souls. Akhilesh Sharma, Political Editor, NDTV India, reiterated, "Today's generation has innovative ideas and strong opinions, something that reflects well through the articles these students have written." Applauding the students, Rajeev Ranjan said, "Graphic designing has a great scope in all verticals of media — print, online and television. Illustrated graphics help understand a story better. So, it was great to see student's ideas and illustrations in The Global Times." "Be a good listener and observe, everything else will follow," Kamna Arora shared the mantra for students who wanted to pursue a career in journalism.

One, two, three Award belongs to me

Awe inspiring dignitaries. Entertaining acts. Inspirational speeches. And yet the picture seems incomplete without those shining trophies. The ceremony saw giving away of awards in several categories (it's GT 'Awards' after all) viz Best Headline, Best Graphic, Most outstanding Story et al. Followed by a special category 'School Time Achievement Award'. While AIS Gur 46 bagged the top spot, AIS Noida took second lead. AIS Saket and PV stood side by side at the second runner up position.

PS Even though the writer has tried her best to cover all that happened at the event, she feels it's tough to recreate the magic, even in fine print. So make sure you are there next year. 🇮🇳

GT Awards 2016-17

Best Design Award

Second Runner Up

AIS Gurugram 46

First Runner Up

AIS Gurugram 43

Winner

AIS Noida

Best Editing Award

Second Runner Up

AIS Mayur Vihar

First Runner Up

AIS Saket

Winner

AIS Pushp Vihar

School Time Achievement Award

Siddharth Bagga
AIS Gurugram 46

Simran Arora
AIS Pushp Vihar

Megha Jha
AIS Gurugram 46

Unmuktman Singh
AIS Mayur Vihar

Chinmaya Kausik
AIS Gurugram 43

First Runner Up
AIS Noida

Second Runner Up
AIS Saket

Second Runner Up
AIS Pushp Vihar