Where Empowering Girls Meets A Sustainable Earth

Students of Amitasha participate in plantation drive

Felicitation of chief guest at the programme

Amitasha

Amitasha Foundation for Upliftment of Underprivileged Children, in collaboration with NHPC Limited (National Hydroelectric Power Corporation Limited), organised a special event 'Her Future, Green Future' on August 22, 2025, at AIS Noida, to promote the social message that 'Educating and empowering less privileged girls goes hand-in-hand with nurturing a greener, more sustainable planet.' Over 200 girls from Class VI-XII of Amitasha came together to emphasise the importance of education, health, and environment as the three key pillars for building a happier world.

The event was graced by Dr (Mrs) Amita Chauhan, Chairperson,

Amita Group of Schools and RBEF, along with chief guest Laxmi Singh, IPS, commissioner of police, Gautam Buddha Nagar, Sapna Chauhan, Vice President, Amitasha, principals and advisors from Amity fraternity and dignitaries from supporting organisations like Indraprastha Gas Limited, AE Live, and Fresenius Kabi Oncology Limited. The event witnessed a powerful skit by the students titled 'Prakriti ki Pukar – Together, Let's Make It a Better World'.

This was followed by a plantation drive wherein 500 plants were planted by everyone present. A free health check-up camp for Amitasha was organised by Metrocare Health Services, along with distribution of nutritional support coupons.

Virtual address by the Founder President, Dr Ashok K. Chauhan, was the key highlight of the event. Blessing the students, he shared his vision and encouraged them to pursue their dreams with courage and lead India towards a brighter and greener future. Motivating them further, Chairperson in her address, emphasised that by linking education with health and environment, Amitasha is nurturing future leaders who will shape a brighter, greener, and more compassionate tomorrow. The chief guest in her address, deeply commended the initiative and reaffirmed her belief in Amitasha students as the changemakers of tomorrow. The event concluded with a symbolic 'Green Freedom' celebration, marked by kite and balloon flying. G I

Little musicians sing timeless western melodies

Musical mosaic

AIS Noida

The school hosted 'Musical Mosaic: The Timeless Transformation of Western Music', a vibrant celebration of rhythm and melody by Class II students. The event was graced by Dr (Mrs) Amita Chauhan, Chairperson, Amity Group of Schools and RBEF, along with Manish Kumar Verma (IAS), district magistrate, Noida as the chief guest.

The euphonious performances traced the journey of western music, spanning from the soulful hits of early 1900s to today's contemporary expressions, brought alive through the voices of young Amitians. The stage resonated with iconic melodies, that ranged from heartfelt ballads to energetic modern numbers, showcasing the diversity of eras and styles. The grand finale, featuring all the young performers in a spirited chorus, and a synchronised orchestra performance stood out as the highlight of the event, capturing the joy of music and leaving the audience spellbound. Future accounting talents

AIS VKC Lucknow

Twenty two students of accountancy from Class XI & XII visited the Institute of Cost & Management Accountants of India (ICMAI), Lucknow, on August 23, 2025, for an informative session on GST and ITR filing. The session was conducted by Juhi Upadhyay, vice chairperson, ICMAI and Hitesh Batra, member, ICMAI. Students learnt about practical application of taxation concepts and gained hands-on exposure to the process of Income Tax Return

Amitians at ICMAI with the resource persons

(ITR) filing. Career prospects of Cost and Management Accounting were also discussed, sparking curiosity and interest among the students. The session offered valuable insights into the real-world practices and applications of concepts learnt in classrooms, which proved helpful in enhancing professional understanding of the students.
